The library contains many rare and valuable books, as well as the popular literature of the day, numbering about 3,000 volumes. The average number of books issued monthly is 170; average number of visitors to the rooms monthly, 1,400.

Association.
The Association now numbers about 400 members, many of whom are actively engaged in Association work at the Virginia penitentiary, city almshouse and jail, and other destitute places.

Baptist.
As some of the most important general boards of this denomination are located in this city, we present below a list of their officers and a synopsis of their work:

Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.
From the year 1814 to 1815 the Baptists of the United States were united in their missionary operations in a single organization known as the Triennial Convention. During that period the Baptist churches of the South contributed to the Triennial Convention, for all missionary purposes, some $200,000. In 1845 the Southern Baptist Convention was formed, with the view of developing the benevolence of the Baptist churches of the South, and of sending the Gospel to the destitute parts of our southern country and to the heathen and uncivilized nations of the world.

Missionary and Library Association.
T. H. Elliott, president; J. H. Scholer, recording secretary. This Society is conducted mainly in the interest of the Sunday school, especially to bring to the new school to visit and to the old school to have been long supplying the wants of destitute children. But it is also engaged in other Christian work, and notably the visitation of churches, and strangers coming to the neighborhood of the church.

Young Men's Missionary Society.
The following statistics from the reports made to the General Assembly in 1879: Number of churches, 11; members, 2,081; ministers, 209; communicants, 24,208; Sunday-school scholars, 19,027; contributions for general purposes, $118,242; for local preachers, $125,000; for benevolent purposes, $150,000; number of persons baptized, 1,500; number of persons confirmed, 1,500; number of persons received into the church, 1,500; number of persons who have been excommunicated, 1,500.

$30,000. The property of the Board in foreign lands may be valued at some $50,000. The latest statistics are as follows: "Fourteen foreign missionaries, 41 native assistants, 477 scholars, 750 church members. Average annual receipts, $35,000. Over 100 churches have been converted to baptism in 1879." The Board publishes a monthly—the Foreign Mission Journal. Two of their missionaries sailed in December for Africa, and five others expect to leave this month for other fields of labor.

A volume on the history and work of this Board, by their corresponding secretary, is now in press, and will be soon issued.

State Mission Board.
Rev. J. R. Garrett, D. D., president; Rev. J. B. Jeter, D. D., vice-president; H. K. Ellyson, corresponding secretary; James T. Gatewood, recording secretary.

This Board of the Virginia Baptist General Association sustained during the past year a mission to the destitute parts of the State. They reported the following summary of labors performed during the year: Number of preaching stations, 164; number of sermons preached, 3,324; number of persons baptized, 482; number of conversions in connection with the labors of the missionaries, 482; persons baptized by other pastors, 897; Sunday-schools at stations, 106; new Sunday-schools organized, 23; new churches constituted, 8; houses of worship erected, 13; houses of worship completed during the year, 7.

Baptist Education Board.
Rev. Dr. W. E. Hatcher, president; J. Taylor Ellyson, corresponding secretary. No. 1117 Main street.

The object of this Board is to aid young men studying for the ministry at Richmond College, or at other Baptist Theological seminaries. It is a State organization, and undertakes to aid students who come properly endorsed by the Virginia churches. During its past career the Board has aided 423 ministerial students, many of whom have been the most useful pastors. It is estimated that the contributions to ministerial training, during the past year, have been $20,000.53, and that the general benevolent support, church building, and general benevolent objects amounted in 1879 to $342,861.

Protestant Episcopal Church.
From the reports to the last annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia, we compile the following statistics: Number of churches, 157; number of communicants, 15,000; number of Sunday-school scholars, 15,000; number of persons baptized, 1,500; number of persons confirmed, 1,500; number of persons received into the church, 1,500; number of persons who have been excommunicated, 1,500.

nel S. Carter, president; George W. Henderson, recording secretary. This Society is engaged chiefly in city mission work. It has aided in organizing, conducting, and maintaining 20 Sunday-schools in destitute localities (one of very promising interest on Bay View Island). It holds weekly neighborhood prayer-meetings and distributes annually a large number of tracts. It also labors for the cause of missions generally, and contributes liberally to other benevolent enterprises in which the denomination is engaged. Present membership, 73; contributions, $23,000.

Ladies' Aid Society.—Mrs. William E. Hatcher, president; Mrs. O. D. Browne, secretary. The funds of this Society are expended for the benefit of foreign missions and for the relief of the poor of the church and congregation. Present membership, 40; amount raised and expended, $100.

Ladies' Sewing Circle.—Miss J. M. Ballou, president; Mrs. H. R. Mason, secretary. This Society was organized for the purpose of raising funds to aid in repairing the house of worship. Present membership, 75. Amount raised during the year, $225.

Boys' and Girls' Society.—This organization is still maintained with increased enthusiasm. During the year the sum of $175 has been raised for benevolent objects. Beside very many of the members of this Society have during the year become earnest and active members of the church.
